

In Arbitration, it is the parties who decide the rules

1. The female always makes the rules;
2. The rules are subject to change without notice;
3. No male can possibly know all the rules;
4. If the female suspects the male knows all the rules, she must immediately change some of all the rules;
5. The female is never wrong;
6. If it appears to the female is wrong it is because of a misunderstanding caused by something the male did or said or failed to do or say;
7. If rule number 6 applies, the male must apologise immediately for causing the misunderstanding;
8. The female can change her mind at any time;
9. The male must never change his mind without the express written consent of the female;
10. The female has the right to be angry and upset at any time;
11. The male must remain calm at all times unless the female wants him to be angry or upset;
12. The female must under no circumstances let the male know whether she wants him to be angry or upset;
13. The male is expected to read the mind of the female at all times, and
14. If the male at any time believes he is right, he must refer to rule 5.
